WILLIAMS ARTS CAMPUS

Proceed to the bottom of College Hill via the escarpment trail or drive down to the Snyder Street Lot. You can explore the Grossman Gallery and the latest studio art projects at Williams Visual Arts Center. Step into 248 N. Third and you enter state-of-the-art film production studios. Buck Hall boasts a black box theater for faculty and student-led productions, and viewings for the community of movies and London theater productions.

RECREATION SPACES

Take a quick walk through Kirby Sports Center and you will see the climbing wall, racquetball courts, fitness center outfitted with the latest equipment and exercise rooms that hold group exercise classes, such as Zumba, yoga, and strength training. Proceed to the second floor to several gyms that host pickup games of basketball and various intramural and club sports, plus the Weinstein Natatorium's 25-yard lap pool and diving pool. The third floor accesses the indoor track and seating for swim meets.
